The 2020 Kalgoorlie-Boulder Community Fair has a range of activities that your school can be a part of. We know that schools are dynamic places and want to give you the opportunity to showcase the diverse skillsets of your students.

Yes, _____ School would like to participate in the 2020 Kalgoorlie-Boulder Community Fair. (please tick the activities where your school would like to be involved)

No, _____ School is not able to participate this year.

SCHOOLS DISPLAY

A static display showcasing student work, specific school initiatives and programs. One display board back and front. Boards are available on request.

FLOAT PARADE

Showcase your school as part of the community in our opening ceremony. Schools are invited to create floats to show off what your school is about.

FRUIT AND VEGETABLE COMPETITION

Does your school have a kitchen garden? Think about putting some produce into this year's fruit and vegetable competition. See the Fruit and Vegetable Entry Form on our website for categories.

RECYCLED ART COMPETITION

Get the students to use all of that creative energy to develop art made from recycled materials. A great lesson on the impact of waste on the environment!

LEGO COMPETITION

With the Lego Masters TV getting kids once again enthusiastic about Lego why not get them involved in our Lego competition.

ROBOTIC LEGO COMPETITION

This tests the skills of the technological minded with team pitted against team in a robotic Lego task. See the Robotics Lego Entry Form for more details.

ENTERTAINMENT ON STAGE AREAS

Do you have a choir, band, dance or performance group at your school that would relish the opportunity of a public performance? Timeslots of 20 mins are available from 12-7pm Friday and 10am to 7pm on Saturday.

HANDICRAFTS

Knitting, quilting, clothing design, crochet and more.

COOKING COMPETITION

Categories include cake decorating, biscuits, slices, jams and preserves and more.

All competition entry forms are available at <https://www.kbfair.org.au/>

Provision of Shade

We are always in need of shade at the fair. Would your school be happy to lend us some sporting tents for the weekend of the fair?
